Iker Hi, my name is Iker. You might know me as an avid blogger on all things related to Driver Turbo License Id And Password. What you might not know is that the app was originally released on iOS in 2008, but has now been designed for Android devices as well! With this new release, drivers can put an end to their expensive car insurance rates and bypasses traffic jams due to construction or accidents.

Driver Turbo License Id And Password lets drivers pay for the right of way based on their skill level and distance travelled instead of paying a flat rate for unlimited kilometres. The app also features three different types of drivers: business, personal, and student driver with corresponding cost structures. But, it's not just about your bonus points. Drivers can also upgrade their cars to improve their chances of passing the city's traffic lights or get more bonus points, improve driver skills or even get a new gearbox.

The original Driver Turbo License Id And Password had been very effective and was downloaded more than 12 million times. Many drivers used the app during and following its release and many cities responded by upgrading their traffic light systems to allow for this technology to work. The original app has been downloaded over 12 million times while its available services were used by some 1 million drivers worldwide in 2010 alone. Its usage was particularly high in the United Arab Emirates (where it is No. 1 in the top 50 free Android apps), Mexico, and India. The app was released on the App Store in July 2008 under the name "Turbo License" at a price of $1.99 (with no in-app purchases) and was available exclusively for iPhones. The app has since been downloaded over 600,000 times. The original Driver Turbo License Id And Password app released on iOS is now available for Android users as well! Available services include real-time traffic updates, online chat with other drivers, localized announcements concerning road conditions or road accidents and multi-lingual support for English speakers living abroad. In June 2011, the original Driver Turbo License Id And Password app won the following prizes from the developers' world: In November 2010, Driver Turbo License Id And Password won these awards from Apple:

At present, the app has been downloaded over 12 million times and has been used by more than 1 million drivers worldwide. Its users include many celebrities including Hollywood actor John Malkovich, who also featured in a video for the app. This video was shot in Paris with a special car equipped with a device to measure driver behaviour during traffic jams.

Also in 2010 media reported about the original Driver Turbo License Id And Password app's use as a training aid for novice drivers by both parents and driving instructors alike.

There is also a version created for Android OS: in August 2011, it was in the top 10 in several countries. Currently Driver Turbo License Id And Password is available for iOS and Android OS and can be downloaded from Apple App Store and Google Play.

Driver Turbo License Id And Password es una aplicación de software para smartphones y tabletas que permite el pago por uso de la vía en lugares donde se paga por kilómetro recorrido.
